

The Good News and Good Advice

Although the Gospel
puts a priority
on proclaiming
the Good News,
it does its share
of dispensing
good advice.

The Good News
announces what God has done for us;
good advice
suggests what we can do for God.

The Good News
is that God takes the initiative
and extends
the invitation;
good advice regards
the breadth
of our reception
and the depth
of our response.

The Good News
emphasizes reliance
of God;
good advice concerns
the contribution
from us.

The Good News
shows the Way;
good advice is:
follow Him.

The Good News
proclaims the Truth;
good advice is:
believe in Him.
The Good News
announces the Life;
good advice is:
experience Him.

The best advice,
therefore,
is to heed
the Good News.

© Msgr. Walter Niebrzydowski
November 5, 2000
Fr-Walter@nyc.rr.com
www.fatherwaltersparish.org